

Report on Exhibition-cum-Sale Organized by Skill India

By Dhruv Bhagat

The Exhibition-cum-Sale organized by Skill India, Government of India, was held at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi, from 10th to 15th October 2025. The event aimed to promote the skills and craftsmanship of Indian artisans and entrepreneurs, providing them a platform to showcase their creativity and connect with a wider audience.

The exhibition was inaugurated by the Honourable Home Minister of India, who appreciated the initiative for empowering rural and urban craftsmen through self-reliant skill development. In his address, he emphasized the government's commitment to promoting traditional arts and supporting the "Make in India" vision.

Artisans, weavers, and creators from various states such as Rajasthan, Gujarat, Assam, Tamil Nadu, and Jammu & Kashmir participated, displaying an impressive range of handicrafts, handlooms, pottery, jewelry, and organic products. The stalls reflected India's rich cultural diversity and craftsmanship.

The event attracted a large number of visitors, including foreign tourists and trade delegates, who expressed admiration for the quality and authenticity of the exhibits. Many products received bulk orders for export, highlighting the global appeal of Indian handmade goods.

The exhibition concluded successfully, achieving its objective of promoting local talent and generating economic opportunities. It served as an inspiring example of how traditional skills, when supported and showcased effectively, can contribute to both cultural preservation and national development.

— End of Report —